CHINO BASIN WATER CONSERVATION DISTRICT

MAINTENANCE, PRUNING & PEST MANAGEMENT WORKSHOP

“Confused about pruning? We can help!”

Inland Empire - Chino Basin Water Conservation District (CBWCD) is offering a FREE water wise workshop focusing on plant maintenance, pruning and pest management on Saturday, September 11, 2010 from 9:00 a.m. to 12:30 p.m. This educational workshop will teach residents how to easily and aesthetically maintain and prune their shrubs and trees. In addition, attendees will learn how to deal with pests in their yard in an effective and environmentally safe manner.

In addition to the workshop, CBWCD will be giving away FREE mulch to area residents from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. (Residents must bring their own shovel and containers).

CBWCD presentations are always entertaining and informative. Plus, all attendees receive helpful handouts, water wise giveaways, snacks and a tour of CBWCD's drought tolerant demonstration garden and park.

To sign up or for more information, please visit www.cbwcd.org or call 909-626-2711.

CBWCD, located at 4594 San Bernardino Street in Montclair, is home to a fabulous, water wise demonstration garden and is open to the public seven days a week from 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m.
