CBWCD's New Board of Director – Margaret Hamilton

Inland Empire (January 10, 2012) - Chino Basin Water Conservation District (CBWCD) welcomed their new board member Margaret Hamilton who was appointed on January 9, 2012. Ms. Hamilton has been an Ontario resident for over forty years. She is a retired school teacher having taught at Ontario Christian School and for the Chino Valley Unified School District. Her experience with elementary school children will be an asset to CBWCD and their efforts to educate youth on the importance of water conservation. Ms. Hamilton stated, "I feel that education in water conservation is of the utmost importance, especially here in Southern California." She added, "With my years of experience as a teacher with children and administrators, I hope to help and influence future generations."

Ms. Hamilton has been active in the community serving as a Neighborhood Watch captain, collecting funds for the American Heart Association, and serving on the board for the Ontario Christian Schools. Ms. Hamilton is also active with her church by serving on several committees.

Ms. Hamilton was appointed to the CBWCD board of directors to fill the position vacated by retiring board member John Reddick. She will fill the position until November of 2012, when the seat will be up for election on the 2012 ballot. For more information on CBWCD's board of directors or the District's various educational programs, visit www.cbwcd.org or call 909-626-2711.
